A little bit of love in Michigan

Southfeild ,Michigan , 17.02.2019, 04:28 Time

USPA NEWS - An array of poetic and artistic talent was displayed at Punchline Comedy Lounge in the metropolitan Detroit area.

An impressive assembly of artists and poets was featured at a well known comedy venue in the metro Detroit area. Punchline Comedy Lounge located in Southfeild Michigan held a pre Valentine's Day poetic event that's catching alot of attention. Arts Beats and Poetry is its name and it has alot of new and upcoming talent in regards to open mic skills.

The event was hosted by the poet/artist known as Mizhani Movement.

Alot of the subject matter initiated by the artists covered a wide range topics like relationships, black history month, politics, love and some of the artists own personal experiences. Esau, who was one of the performers had alot of content in the sphere of affinity and love. The poet/artist known as The Ellematic View was also in the building who gave a captivating performance, check her out at The Ellematic View at You Tube.

Kim Joyce Music gave a exillierating vocal and musical performance with her acoustic guitar and well tuned voice. There were many others along with the smooth sounds by the djs at the event. If your ever in the Metro area treat yourself to some good Music and poetry. Arts Beats and Poetry is a traveling poetry show, go online for schedules and times.
